

Aimee Brennan

Vice President, Administration

Business Roundtable

Aimee Brennan is Vice President of Administration at Business Roundtable, where she is charged with the daily operation of the organization's finances, IT, human resources, benefits, facilities and workplace.

Prior to joining the Roundtable, Brennan served as Program Director for a nonprofit educational travel company and was also a paralegal specialist with the Department of Justice in the Antitrust Division. Brennan earned a bachelor's degree in Political Science and Geography and Urban Studies from Temple University. She resides in Alexandria, Va. with her husband and son.

Source URL: <https://www.businessroundtable.org/about/staff/aimee-brennan>